

PARENT STUDY

Individually this week, spend time reading
Chapter 27 of The Story or Matt. 27-28; Mark 16; Luke 24 and John 19-21.

As you study, pray that God shows you things that encourage,
challenge, enlighten, and spur you to a stronger faith in Him.

BY YOURSELF...

Use these simple questions and prompts to help you ponder and prepare to discuss this week's chapter with your family.

4. When Jesus appeared to people after his resurrection, how do you think their lives were changed? What difference does it make in your life knowing Jesus is alive today?
5. Before Jesus ascended to heaven, he commanded his followers to “go and make disciples of all nations.” If you are a believer, when was the last time you talked to someone else about your faith in Jesus?
6. What is something else from this story that stuck out to me? How can I share that with my family as we seek to grow as disciples?

FAMILY STUDY

This Week

Use the following resource to engage with God as a family.

Read THE STORY Chapter 27: The Resurrection
in *The Story for Little Ones/Children/Kids

Do Together:

Help your child remember the story from the last two weeks and the new life that we can have through Jesus with these Easter eggs that tell the story of Jesus' death and resurrection. Gather plastic Easter eggs or other small containers. Put things inside each egg that remind you of a part of the Bible story. You might use the following items: a piece of bread, a rock, a strip of cloth, spices, a small cross, a nail, a plastic flower, and a piece of string or rope. Leave one of the eggs empty. Number the outside of the eggs to go in order of the story. The last egg is the empty egg. As you open each egg, retell that part of the Bible story. When you get to the empty egg, celebrate that the women found Jesus' tomb empty because he was risen!

Talk About:

1. Tell me something amazing that happened to you.
2. What amazing thing happened to Jesus?
3. Jesus' friends were surprised when they found his empty tomb. Have you ever been surprised?

Pray Together:

Dear Jesus, we thank you for dying for our sins. We know you rose again after you died. Please help us to share your message of love with others. Amen.
