Collectively known as the "Great Hallel," Psalms 113–118 were sung in the temple when the Passover lambs were slain. Let's recite a portion of this together:

Leader & congregation

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

*The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation.*

The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous; the right hand of the LORD does valiantly.

*The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.*

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

*The LORD has chastened me severely,
But He has not given me over to death.*

Open to me the gates of righteousness; I will go through them, and I will praise the LORD.

This is the gate of the LORD, through which the righteous shall enter.

I will praise You, for You have answered me, and have become my salvation.

*The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.*

This was the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Christ in the Passover

Indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast.

1 Corinthians 5:7–8

The Four Questions

Mah nish-ta-nah ha-lai-lah ha-zeh mi-kol ha-lay-lot?

- Why is this night different from all other nights? On all other nights we eat leavened or unleavened bread; why on this night do we eat only unleavened bread?
- On all other nights we eat vegetables and herbs of all kinds; why on this night do we eat only bitter herbs?
- On all other nights we are not required to dip the herbs once; why on this night do we dip them twice?
- On all other nights we eat sitting upright or reclining; why on this night do we recline?

Blessing

Over the Candles

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who sanctifies us by His commandments and commands us to kindle the festival lights.

Over the Cup (Kiddush)

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who creates the fruit of the vine.

Over the Bread

Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.
